Pages H2181-83

Suspension—Consumer Price Index: The House completed all debate on the motion to suspend the rules and agree to H. Res. 93, expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that the Bureau of Labor Statistics alone should make any adjustments, if any are needed, to the methodology used to determine the Consumer Price Index. The vote on this motion was postponed until Wednesday, May 7.

Pages H2183-88

Housing Authority and Responsibility Act: The House resumed consideration of amendments to H.R. 2, to repeal the United States Housing Act of 1937, deregulate the public housing program and the program for rental housing assistance for low-income families, and increase community control over such programs. The House completed all debate on Wednesday, April 30 and considered amendments to the bill on Thursday, May 1. Consideration of amendments will resume on Wednesday, May 7.

Pages H2188-H2243

Agreed To:

The Lazio en bloc amendment that clarifies that certain specified resident programs and services may be included, but are not mandated; requires that local housing authorities notify local government officials of proposed housing developments and provide information as may reasonably be requested by the local government; clarifies that operating funds from block grants may be used for child care services for public housing residents; extends hardship rent and voucher provisions to a family that includes a member who is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence who would be entitled to public benefits but for the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996; specifies that no rental assistance shall be given to private housing projects unless the owners consent to allow law enforcement officers enter common areas without advance notice upon a determination of probable cause that criminal activity is taking place; directs that the award criteria for economic development initiative grants include the extent of regional cooperation demonstrated by the proposed plan; extends emergency homeownership counseling to veterans; prohibits action during the two years following enactment that would reduce the inventory of senior citizen housing owned by the housing authority of the City of Las Vegas and directs HUD to assist the housing authority to identify alternative repayment options without reducing senior citizen housing; prohibits any person classified as a sexually violent predator from receiving public housing assistance; and allows the Tamaqua highrise project in Tamaqua, Pennsylvania to be converted from tenant based assistance to project based rental assistance for certain residents: Pages H2188-92

The Waters amendment that excludes from administrative grievance procedures an eviction or termination of tenancy in public housing that involves any activity that threatens the health and safety of other tenants or any drug-related criminal activity and, for other evictions establishes an administrative grievance process with time limits for the hearing and final action regarding the grievance; and

The Jackson-Lee amendment that requires that public housing authorities and contractors working within housing projects shall try to hire public housing residents to the maximum extent that is possible. Pages H2241–42

FLOOD PREVENTION AND FAMILY PROTECTION ACT

Committee on Rules: Granted, by voice vote, an open rule providing 1 hour of debate on H.R. 478, Flood Prevention and Family Protection Act of 1997. The rule makes in order the Committee on Resources amendment in the nature of a substitute as an original bill for amendment purposes and said amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered as read. The rule authorizes the Chair to accord priority in recognition to Members who have preprinted their amendments in the Congressional Record. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit, with or without instructions. Testimony was heard from Chairman Young and Representatives Herger and Miller of California.

JUVENILE CRIME CONTROL ACT

Committee on Rules: Granted, by a vote of 8 to 3, a modified closed rule on H.R. 3, Juvenile Crime Control Act of 1997, providing one hour of general debate equally divided between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary. The rule provides that the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute will be considered as an original bill for amendment purposes and will be considered as read. The rule waives points of order against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute for failure to comply with clause 5(a) of rule XXI (appropriations on a legislative bill).

The rule provides that no amendments to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute will be in order except those printed in the report of the Committee on Rules. The rule provides that each amendment may be offered only in the order printed in the report, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided between the proponent and an opponent, and is not amendable except as specified in the report.

The rule allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill, and to reduce the vote to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit, with or without instructions. Testimony was heard from Chairman Hyde and Representatives McCollum, Dunn, Conyers, Scott, Watt of North Carolina, Lofgren, Jackson-Lee of Texas, Waters, Delahunt, Traficant, Stupak and Blumenauer.
